

Composting Achievements

City of Montréal

Installation and operation of a pilot composting facility for organic wastes sorted at source

Plant capacity: 2 000 tonnes/year originating from four activity sectors: residential, commercial, institutional and industrial Domtar Inc.

Development of different composts, on a pilot scale, from various by-products generated by the activities of the Windsor plant

Assessment of compost quality against Canadian standards

CRIQ

CENTRE DE RECHERCHE
INDUSTRIELLE DU QUÉBEC